

Column Explanations

Column 1: State Parks. Parks are numbered north to south to correspond with the numbering in the document. The twelve priority parks are bold.

Note: The California Indian Heritage Center will replace the existing California State Indian Museum.

Column 2: Existing campsites. Data are from the 2006/2007 Parks Statistical Report. All campsites are reported as individual campsites; each group campsite is counted as six individual campsites.

Column 3: Proposed additional campsites. All campsites are reported as individual campsites; each group campsite is counted as six individual campsites.

Column 4: Existing picnic sites. Existing picnic site data are from the 2006/2007 Parks Statistical Report. All picnic sites are reported as individual picnic sites; each group picnic site is counted as six individual sites.

Column 5: Proposed additional picnic sites. All picnic sites are reported as individual picnic sites; each group picnic site is counted as six individual sites.

Columns 6 through 10: Other facilities and services. Symbols indicate the status of trails, angling, boating, interpretation and education and historic sites:

- Existing at park, no additions proposed
- Existing at park, additions proposed
- ▲ Proposed new at park

Notes: “Services” in “Other facilities and services” heading refers to all services such as visitor centers, interpretive signs and school programs. “Trails” refers to hiking, biking, equestrian and Off Highway Vehicle trails.

Column 11: Existing land. Data are from the 2007/2008 Parks Statistical Report and District staff.

Note: Old Sacramento SHP existing acres total includes land alongside railroad tracks at SHP.

Column 12: Proposed additional land. Black text indicates State Parks acquisitions; underlined green text indicates transfers.

Column 14: Estimated costs (California State Parks and others). Unless otherwise noted, estimated costs include campsite and picnic site development, visitor center development, land acquisition, habitat restoration and park planning.

Note: For the California Indian Heritage Center and Old Sacramento’s California Railroad Technology Museum facilities construction, substantial funding is expected to be raised privately.

Column 15: Estimated additional annual revenues. CSP staff created estimates using Park Operations standards for calculating revenues. These data were used:

- Existing attendance data for existing or comparable facilities, including the approximate annual number of sites sold and estimated annual days occupied per site
- Existing or comparable fees

Column 16: Related trails and corridors. Parks are linked in networks of recreation by boating trails, heritage corridors and Central Valley segments of regional California Recreational Trail (CRT) corridors. Abbreviations are:

- ADT: American Discovery Trail (CRT)
- BGHC: Black Gold Heritage Corridor
- BT: Boating trails
- CCEC: Cross-California Ecological Corridor
- CDHC : California Delta Heritage Corridor
- CVFT: Central Valley Farm Trail
- EAHC: Echoes of our Ancestors Heritage Corridor
- JUBA: Juan Bautista de Anza National Historic Trail (CRT)
- PCT: Pacific Crest Trail (CRT)
- PET: Pony Express Trail (CRT)
- SJRT: San Joaquin River Trail (CRT)

Column 17: Potential partners for initiatives. Potential partners are groups with interest in initiative proposed at the park. Abbreviations are:

- BLM: Bureau of Land Management
- BOR: Bureau of Reclamation
- CIHCF: California Indian Heritage Center Foundation
- CSRMF: California State Railroad Museum Foundation
- CVFPB: Central Valley Flood Protection Board
- DBAW: Department of Boating and Waterways
- DFG: Department of Fish and Game
- DWR: Department of Water Resources
- KRC: Kings River Conservancy
- NRCS: Natural Resources Conservation Service
- SRT: Sequoia Riverlands Trust
- SVC: Sacramento Valley Conservancy
- TAC: The Archaeological Conservancy
- TNC: The Nature Conservancy
- USACOE: US Army Corps of Engineers
- USFWS: US Fish and Wildlife Service
- WCB: Wildlife Conservation Board
- YLT: Yolo Land Trust
